The word that means “worship,” λατρεία (lat-RAY-ah) in the Greek, also means “service.”

The Greek word for “sacrifice” is actually “killing.” Romans 12:1 is saying to us, “Make your life a ...”

In the Old Testament, sacrifices were at the heart of the life of worship.

WORSHIP AND SERVICE

St. Paul is saying you're not living the Christian life unless you put to death the idea that you...

A "living sacrifice" never _____, because it never _____.

Everyone puts themselves in service to something.

Work, sing, pray, and come to grips with the love of God; that's worship.

And, when you mess up, repent.
